NOTICE TO PERSON DETAINED UNDER SECTIONS 135 OR 136 OF THE MENTAL HEALTH ACT 1983

WHY YOU ARE BEING DETAINED:

You have been brought to this Place of Safety by a police officer so that you can be seen by a doctor and a social worker to assess your suitability to receive treatment. Arrangements will be made for the doctor and social worker to see you as soon as possible.

The maximum time you can be detained here is 72 hours.

YOUR TREATMENT:

When the doctor and social worker have seen you, they may say you must go to a hospital for treatment. If they do, they will tell you why and for how long it is likely to be.

Only in very exceptional circumstances, which would be explained to you, can you be given treatment you do not want.

If the doctor and social worker decide that you do not need to go to a hospital, they will talk to you about what help is available for you.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR COMPLAINTS:

If you want to ask something, or to complain about something, talk to the police officer, doctor or social worker. If there is anything in this notice you do not understand or if you need help to write a letter, ask one of these people.

If you are not happy with their response, you may write to the Mental Health Commission.

THE MENTAL HEALTH ACT COMMISSION:

The Commission was set up specially to make sure that the mental health law is used correctly and that patients are cared for properly while they are kept in hospital. You can ask them to help you by writing to:
